Virtual Town Hall:

Yemeni Americans on the Frontlines of the Pandemic

This community forum focuses on the experiences of Yemeni Americans during the pandemic and the impact of the Trump administration's policies, the Muslim Ban, and the war in Yemen on the community. Speakers will discuss the issues facing Yemeni American grocery stores, in particular, as well as community members and responses to these struggles.

We want to celebrate the resilience of the community and especially of Arab/Muslim small business owners and their families as essential workers on the frontlines of the pandemic.

The panel discussion will be followed by a Q&A with the audience.

Cosponsored by the Asian American Studies Department, UC Davis and the Yemeni American Resource Center
This event is funded by a Scholars and Society fellowship from the Mellon/ACLS Foundation for public scholarship awarded to Sunaina Maira, UC Davis.
